The First Sunday Eucharist In Ordinary Time

The Preparation

After the welcome and before the Eucharist begins the President invites the congregation to prepare by an act of penitence.

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son Jesus Christ to save us from our sins,
to be our advocate in heaven,
and to bring us to eternal life.
Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, firmly resolved to keep God's commandments and to live in love and peace with all.

We have not always worshipped God, our creator.
Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

We have not always followed Christ, our Saviour.
Christ, have mercy.

All Christ, have mercy.

We have not always trusted in the Spirit, our guide.
Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

Almighty God, who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give thanks and praise.

Lord of all life, you created the universe,
where all living things reflect your glory.
You give us this great and beautiful earth,
to discover and to cherish.

You give us your love,
even when things go wrong.
Jesus knew hurt and pain.
Through him you wipe away our tears,
and fill us with your peace.

You give us happy times
and things to celebrate.
In these we taste your kingdom,
a feast for all your children.

You made us all, each wonderfully different,
to join with the angels and sing your praise:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessèd is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We thank you, loving Father, because, when we turned away,
you sent Jesus, your Son.
He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live.

Send your Holy Spirit
that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us Christ's body and his blood.

On the night before he died,
when darkness had fallen,
Jesus took bread.
He gave thanks, broke it,
and shared it with his disciples, saying:
'This is my body, given for you.
Do this to remember me.'

After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying:
'This is my blood, poured out for you and for many,
for the forgiveness of sins.'

So Father, with this bread and this cup we celebrate his love, his death, his risen life.
As you feed us with these gifts,
send your Holy Spirit,
and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Saviour.

Help us, Father, to love one another, as we look forward to that day
when suffering is ended, and all creation is gathered in your loving arms.

And now with [N and] all your saints
we give you glory,
through Jesus Christ, in the strength of the Spirit,
today and for ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and forever.
Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

We who are many are one body,
All because we all share in one bread.

The choir sings the 'O Lamb of God' Then the President invites the congregation to come forward to receive either the Sacrament or a blessing saying,

God's holy Gifts for God's holy people.

This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

THANKSGIVING for the GIFT of a CHILD

Parents with their children gather at the altar rail. The President or other minister begins:

We gather today with parents as they give thanks for their children, and to support them in their responsibilities toward those whom they have brought into the world. God became one of us in Jesus, and understands all that surrounds the arrival and upbringing of children. It is God's purpose that children should know love within the stability of their home, grow in faith, and come at last to the eternal city where his love reigns.

The President/minister says:

Loving God,
you hold all things in life and call us into your kingdom of peace;
help us to walk the path of your truth and fill our lives with gratitude and faith;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All    Amen.

The minister says to each group of parents:

Do you receive this child as a gift from God?

The parents reply:

We/I do.

Do you wish to give thanks to God and to seek his blessing?

We/I do.

What name have you given this child?

His/her name is N.

The President/minister takes the child in his arms and says:

Heavenly Father, we praise you for his/her birth, surround him/her with your blessing that he/she may know your love, be protected from evil,
and know your goodness all his/her days.

All May he/she/they learn to love all that is true, grow in wisdom and strength, and, in due time, come through faith and baptism to the fullness of your grace; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Giving of the Gospel

As a Bible is given to the family, the minister says:

Receive this Bible.

Hear God's word with us. Learn and tell its stories.

Rejoice in its Good News. Discover its mysteries.

Honour its commandments.

May God's life-giving word be to you sweeter than honey, and may it lead you in the way of Christ.

All Amen.

WELCOME to THOSE RECENTLY BAPTISED

Families of those recently baptised come to the front of the church. Each receives a lighted candle and is given the Certificate of Baptism.

Receive this light. This is to show that you have passed from darkness to light.

All Shine as a light in the world to the glory of God the Father.
God has received you by baptism into his Church.

All We welcome you into the Lord's family. We are members together of the body of Christ; we are children of the same heavenly Father; we are inheritors together of the kingdom of God, we welcome you.
