We welcome our newly installed Team Rector, The Revd Dr Jennifer Brown, to celebrate and preach at Mass today

New Beginnings

As I write this, my first cover piece as Rector of Abingdon-on-Thames, I want to start by thanking all those who contributed to the service at which I was inducted and installed in the role and all those who attended the service. It was wonderful to have so many there to support me as I step into this new role.

As part of the service, the new Rector reads out the notices (which strikes me as a very Anglican thing to do!), and although I gave only notices for services and activities happening in the 7 days following the service, it was still a fairly long list. This demonstrates what a vibrant and active parish we have – something that I believe is a real blessing.

My ministry as Rector is beginning at a particularly busy time in the Church's year, as we approach the season of Remembrance, followed by Advent, and then Christmas and Epiphany. This, again, is a time when it becomes evident just how active our three churches are, as we hold extra services and engage in different forms of outreach to the local community. I am looking forward to playing a more active role in the various services and events that our churches have going on during these seasons than I was able to as Associate Priest. Looking further ahead, I hope that we can reflect and work together to build on the good things that are already happening within the parish to grow spiritually, deepen our relationships within and across our congregations, and share the joy of the kingdom of God in Abingdon.

The Revd Dr Jen Brown, Rector

CLOCKS GO BACK 1 HOUR on Saturday night, strictly speaking at 2 am on Sunday 26 October, the last Sunday in October. The UK is then on Greenwich Mean Time until next March.

PAULINE BURREN RIP Pauline Burren, a long-time member of St Nicolas' congregation died on Wednesday 14 October. She and her husband, John, moved to a nursing home in Worcestershire to be nearer to family. John died in July 2024.

Pauline served on the St Nicolas' DCC, the Parochial Church Council and Deanery Synod. Readers may remember that Pauline organised a number of the "St Nicolas' Day" lunches at Coseners House. Some readers may remember the "Ladies Lunches" that Pauline organised, shared meals with a wide variety of guest speakers. She was also the driving force behind the Abingdon Craft Fair. She also had other key roles in the Abingdon Civic Society – The Friends of Abingdon. This quotation is from the Summer 2015 of the Friends of Abingdon Newsletter. Pauline and John both stood down from the Council of the Society in June 2015.

Pauline Burren first became involved with the Friends in 1980 when she started to run Craft Fairs for us. She continued to do this for nearly 30 years, bringing in a total of over £300,000 for our funds. As if this wasn't enough, she also took on the roles of Membership Secretary and Events organizer – her outings and social events were always popular. Three years ago she introduced the concept of an annual "Founders Lunch" in May so it was fitting that this year's [2015] was the last event she organized for us.

May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

There will be two different opportunities to remember the Faithful Departed in the parish. On Sunday 2 November at 5.30 pm there will be a non-Eucharistic parish service of Commemoration of the Faithful Departed at St Helen's. This service is a special opportunity to remember in prayer, and by having names read and a candle lit, departed loved ones. There will be a list in each church on the 19, and 26 of October for those to be remembered. If you would like a loved remembered in the St Helen's service, please add their name to the list. All are welcome to attend this service, but you do not need to attend the service to have a loved one's name read out in memory.

As is our custom this will be a fresh list. No names will be automatically carried over from last year. For logistical reasons we ask that names be provided by Sunday 26 October at the latest. "BEGOTTEN NOT MADE" – THE FOURTH CENTURY DOCTRINE OF THE TRINITY A study day at Pusey House Oxford on Saturday 8 November at 10 am. "Begotten not made, of one being with the Father..." is a crucial but perplexing phrase in the Nicene Creed. What does it mean, why was it so important (and controversial) and how did we end up with the doctrine of the Trinity? A complete lack of previous experience or study is assumed, although clergy, lay readers or others with some knowledge will still find much of interest. 'There is no formal charge for the event, but card donations will be encouraged on the day to support the work of Pusey House on a "Pay What You Want" basis. If you plan to come please do book via the website so we know to expect you (and help ensure we don't run out of nice biscuits).' For more details and booking see:

Worship

October The celebrants and preachers for the next few weeks are: 26 October, The Revd Dr Jennifer Brown; 2 November, The Revd Rosalind Rutherford; 9 November, Canon Ruth Pyke, 16 November, Fr AKMA.

Tuesday is the festival of Simon and James Apostles. There are two commemorations during the week: Wednesday, James Hannington, bishop, martyr, 1885, and Friday: Martin Luther, reformer, 1546. All Saints' Day (1 November) will be kept in the parish, as in many churches nowadays, on Sunday 2 November.

The State Visit of King Charles III to The Vatican A State Visit to the Vatican by King Charles and Queen Camilla had been planned for April as part of their State Visit to Italy. In the event the health of the late Pope Francis meant this had to be cancelled though the King and Queen did pay a private visit to Pope Francis. As readers will know from the press the State Visit has been re-arranged for Thursday 23 October. Although this visit will have taken place before Sunday 26 October, it was in the future when this piece was written on Monday 20 October.

The visit will focus on two key themes: Christian Unity and care for the environment. The programme will include an ecumenical service in the Sistine Chapel at midday (Italian time) . 2025 marks the 10th anniversary of Laudato Si', the encyclical of Pope Francis, subtitled "on care for our common home". The Archbishop of York will also participate in the service. The choirs of St George's Chapel Windsor and His Majesty's Chapel Royal will join the choir of the Sistine Chapel in providing music for the service. At the time of writing an order of service does not appear to have been published, but from Vatican press releases it seems that this service will include a hymn by St Ambrose of Milan in English translation by St John Henry Newman. The King attended the canonisation of Newman in 2019 and at a Mass on 1 November (All Saints' Day) this year, Pope Leo will officially declare Newman a Doctor of the Church. Including Newman, the title Doctor of the Church has been conferred on 34 men and 4 women, the first being Gregory the Great (d. 604) and the second, Ambrose of Milan (d. 397). Newman is only the second English-born Doctor of the Church, the first being the Venerable Bede who was declared Doctor of the Church in 1899.

Newman translated a number of hymns attributed to St Ambrose of Milan and it isn't clear which one will be sung in the service. I think the first one below seems appropriate to the theme, or maybe the second, but, as the saying goes, other options are available.

O God the Lord of place and time,
Who orderest all things prudently,
Brightening with beams the opening prime,
And burning in the midday sky:

Quench thou the fires of hate and strife,
The wasting fever of the heart;
From perils guard our feeble life,
And to our souls thy peace impart.

Or maybe:

Come, Holy Ghost, Who ever One
Art with the Father and the Son;
Come, Holy Ghost, our souls possess
With Thy full flood of holiness.

From the website of the Catholic Bishops Conference of England and Wales, "A 'Doctor of the Church' is a man or woman of great holiness and learning whose teaching and wisdom not only resonated with their own contemporaries, but still illuminates, instructs and inspires today." As a modern translation of an Office Hymn from the Common of Doctors, composed by Ambrose, puts it:

Masters of learning were your eager servants,
Stars of great splendour with but one ambition,
Deeper to ponder teaching that might show us
Life ever blessed.

All tongues should praise you, Jesus. Lord and Master,
Who lavish treasures through your Holy Spirit,
By words and writings of the Church's Doctors,
Flame ever fruitful.

In the afternoon there will be a series of private meetings with representatives of the churches, organisations, and businesses, about the environment. Afterwards the King and Queen will travel to the Basilica of Saint Paul Outside the Walls, which maintains historical ties with the British Crown and its adjacent Benedictine Abbey. The Abbey's coat of arms includes the insignia of the Order of the Garter. To mark the occasion, King Charles will be formally named Royal Confrater of Saint Paul by Cardinal James Michael Harvey and Abbot Donato Ogliari, with the approval of Pope Leo XIV. A Vatican Press release attributed this comment to Archbishop Pace, Secretary of the Dicastery [Vatican department] for Promoting Christian Unity, "It is a sign of honour and spiritual communion." According to a BBC News update on Thursday morning, just before this pew leaflet was published, King will make Pope Leo a Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Bath

Depending on information released, there might be a part 2 to this piece in the next issue, Sunday 2 November.

Black History Month A collect for Black History Month:

Compassionate God, who sent Jesus Christ to deliver us from all manner of injustices and inequalities, create in us new hearts and enlarged visions, to see the image of God in every person irrespective of background, race and ethnicity. May we be generous in our love of others as we work towards ending misunderstanding, racism and injustice; creating communities of human flourishing, through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, ...

Prayers during the Season of Vacancies

The prayer below is the prayer used for the appointment of a new Archbishop of Canterbury. But it is not entirely inappropriate as Fr Paul's official retirement date of 31 October approaches and the next stage of ministry in the parish of Abingdon is discerned.

Heavenly Father, shepherd of your Church,
send us a faithful pastor to lead with wisdom, courage, and love,
proclaiming your Gospel, celebrating the sacraments,
and guiding your people in unity and truth.

Strengthen your Church, we pray, and direct us in your ways; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayers for the Peace of the World

The prayer for Israel and Gaza was adapted from a prayer written by Tearfund. The prayer for Ukraine was written by the Bishop of Oxford.

Heavenly Father, who sent your son Jesus to be our Prince of Peace,
We thank you for the agreement between Israel and Hamas. We pray that this would bring lasting peace to the whole region, and that you would restore hope to the hopeless.
We pray that Israel would allow a flood of aid to freely enter Gaza.
We pray for a lasting ceasefire, and that the peace plan is implemented fully by all parties, so that Israelis and Palestinians can live in peace and with dignity.
Our hearts break for the millions of people who've endured relentless violence and conflict, and we ask that you restore them to life in all its fullness.
For all those who are suffering, starving and mourning, we ask that help would reach them quickly – and that you would be their comfort, their healer and their safe refuge. In Jesus' name, Amen

God of compassion,
Have mercy this day on the people of Ukraine.
Restore to them the gift of peace.
Grant wisdom to the governments of the world.
Bring good in the midst of evil and suffering,
For the sake of Jesus Christ your Son,
Who gave his life to bring peace to your world
Amen.

Please pray for:

- Steven and Gavin our bishops in this diocese;
- Stephen, Archbishop of York, and Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury designate;
- Charles, our King, Her Majesty the Queen, and all the royal family;

- giving thanks for all who have helped with services and other aspects of church life during the vacancy and all who contribute to the worship, fellowship, and outreach of our churches;
- the ministry of the three churches of our parish
- all who will attend services in the coming seasons of Remembrance, Advent, and Christmas, that they may encounter the living Christ;
- Linda Hobbs, preparing for her licensing as a Licensed Lay Minister on 1 November and the LLMs in our parish Gwen Bevington and Sue Holligan;
- the suffering, especially those who are known to us and who are on our prayer list;
- all who have recently departed, and all whose year's mind falls at this time;
- people living in: Manor Court, Marina Way, Market Place and Marsh Court.

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
