The Baptism of Christ

Looking back to Christmas and Epiphany, the celebration of the incarnation of God in Jesus, the manifestation of God in human form is spread across the two festivals of 25 December and 6 January. The allocation of themes between the two festivals came to differ in the Western and Eastern Churches. In the West 25 December celebrates the birth of Jesus and the visit of the shepherds whilst 6 January celebrates the visit of the Magi, the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles and in some places included the baptism of Christ. On the other hand, in the East 25 December celebrates the birth of Christ, the visit of the shepherds and the visit of the Magi with their gifts whilst 6 January celebrates the baptism of Christ. It isn't quite that simple though as in some places the Wedding at Cana in Galilee, the transfiguration and the feeding miracle of the loaves and fishes were added into the mix of themes.

Nowadays the Roman Catholic, Anglican and Lutheran calendars observe the Baptism of Christ as a separate feast on the Sunday after Epiphany. Formally in the Roman Catholic Church this is a recent development, first appearing as a commemoration in 1955 then raised to the status of 'feast' in 1969.

Today's gospel reading, Matthew 3.13-end is Matthew's account of the Baptism of Jesus by John. At first John resists baptising Jesus saying that he, John, needs to be baptised by Jesus. But Jesus says let it be as it is and John consented. As Jesus came up from the water the heavens opened and the Spirit of God descended on him like a dove and a voice from heaven said 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased'.

Bishop Hugh Gilbert, a Benedictine monk and former Roman Catholic Bishop of Aberdeen, wrote an interesting paper for the Aberdeenshire Theological Club (there is a link to this on our Prayer and Worship resources page) in which he explored the theological and liturgical context of the feast and what the baptism of Jesus is and is not. He lists seven aspects under the 'what it is' heading:

- The climax of John's ministry
- A beginning – the beginning of the public ministry of Jesus
- An anointing for mission as Messiah
- An anticipation of Jesus' Paschal Mystery
- An epiphany – an explosion of light
- 'The sanctification of the waters'
- A source and pattern of our own baptism

The theme of the 'sanctification of the waters' is reflected in the writings of Clement of Alexandria (~150 – 215 AD): 'and for this reason the Saviour was baptized that he might purify all water for those being reborn.' The Epiphany liturgy of the Eastern Church includes the blessing of the waters. On the eve of the feast, a large vessel of water is blessed, the church and congregation are sprinkled and everyone drinks from the water. After the liturgy on the feast day where possible, the clergy and people process to a river or sea and the waters again are blessed. These traditions are also reflected in our own liturgy for the feast and at St Helen's Church the Sung Eucharist includes 'Blessing of the Waters' of the nearby River Thames.

The liturgy at St Michael's opens with Thanksgiving for Holy Baptism, which includes sprinkling with the blessed water.

- 'Come', say the Spirit and the Bride.
- 'Come forward, you who are thirsty,
- receive the water of life,
- the free gift to all who desire it.'

Worship

January The celebrants and preachers are: 11 January, the Revd Rosalind Rutherford, 18 January, The Revd Dr Jennifer Brown; 25 January (Dedication Festival), Fr AKMA (the limit of the current clergy rota).

Sunday is the feast of the Baptism of Christ. Commemorations this week include: Monday: Aelfred, abbot, 1167; Tuesday: Hilary, bishop, teacher of the faith, 367; Saturday: Anthony of Egypt, hermit, abbot, 356 and Charles Gore, bishop (of Worcester then Oxford), founder of the Community of the Resurrection, 1932.

Baptism of Christ The feast of the Baptism of Christ which we keep this Sunday has its own Extended Preface to the Eucharistic Prayer:

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

You celebrated your new gift of baptism in signs and wonders at the Jordan.

Your voice was heard from heaven to awaken faith in the presence among us of your Word made flesh.

Your Spirit was seen as a dove, revealing Jesus as your servant, and anointing him with the oil of gladness to preach the good news to the poor.

Therefore, as we celebrate the union of earth and heaven, we rejoice to echo the song of the angels in heaven for ever praising you and saying ...

The Post Communion prayer, a new composition for Common Worship, links Jesus’ baptism to our own and emphasises the on-going work of baptism. It also references the creation narrative in Genesis, the creation of water and humanity and the redemption of fallen creation by Christ.

Lord of all time and eternity, you opened the heavens and revealed yourself as Father in the baptism of Jesus your beloved Son:

by the power of your Spirit complete the heavenly work of our rebirth through the waters of the new creation; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

During another Season of Vacancy

The prayer below is the prayer used for the appointment of a new Archbishop of Canterbury. But it is not entirely inappropriate in the current situation as the next stage of ministry in the parish of Abingdon is discerned.

Heavenly Father, shepherd of your Church, send us a faithful pastor to lead with wisdom, courage, and love, proclaiming your Gospel, celebrating the sacraments,

and guiding your people in unity and truth.

Strengthen your Church, we pray, and direct us in your ways; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayers for the Peace of the World

A prayer from the Church of England:

Almighty God,
from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed:
kindle, we pray, in the hearts of all, the true love of peace and guide with your pure and peaceable wisdom
those who take counsel for the nations of the earth that in tranquillity your kingdom may go forward, till the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, ...
